DETAILED ACTION

Oath/Declaration

1. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

The Applicants filed a copy of the declaration pages 2 and 3 of which are in the conditions preventing recognition of what is in the Declaration. It is simply impossible to read pages 2 and 3 of the Declaration.

Moreover, it seems that the date of the execution of the Declaration is missing.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 4-11 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim could not depend on another multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 4-11 have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- 3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
 The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
- 4. Claims 1-3 and 12-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1746

Claims 1-3 and 12-32 are indefinite because the scope of the claims could not be understood. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document.

For example, claim 1 recite a process for cleaning articles but fails to recite any positive manipulating step. This is not proper for the current U.S. practice.

Further, even the claims, which recite manipulative steps (for example claim 12) are indefinite because it is not clear where the border of the preamble and the body of the claim. The Applicants are encouraged to use the clause "comprising the steps of:" to identify the required steps of the claimed method.

Moreover, the claims contain a lot of other problems such as using ", etc." in the recitation of the integers used in formulas (claims 20, 31), recitation of components in the way which could not be understood (claims 19, 23, 2), the use of improper Markush language, etc.

The Applicants are required to correct the claims and place them in the correspondence with current U.S. practice.

The claims would be examined to the extent of the best Examiner's understanding of the claimed subject matter.

It is noted that when the claims would be placed in the proper format and the scope of the claims would clearly determined a restriction requirement may be made if the claims would lack a common inventive concept.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United
- 6. Claim 1-3, 25 and 31-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by EPA 475,596.

EPA 475,596 teaches (entire document, especially columns 4 and 5) a method for cleaning articles by contacting them with a liquid mixture of water with an organic compound or with a vapor of the mixture of water and the organic compound to remove contaminants from the article. The vapor is allowed to condense on the article. The mixture forms an azeotrope during the "liquid phase-to-vapor phase transition.

As to claims 31 and 32:

The Applicants are trying to claims any organic compound having the general formula recited by claim 31. It is noted that numerous organic compounds would have this general formula. The Examiner can list just several examples: methanol, ethanol, isopropanol, terpenes, ethers, esters, etc.

Since EPA 475,596 recites the use of such compounds it meets all the claimed limitations.

7. Claims 12-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 96/28535.

Art Unit: 1746

WO 96/28535 teaches a method for cleaning articles comprising contacting the article with an azeotropic cleaning composition comprising water and an organic compound, forming azeotrope of this composition and separating the phases of this composition. WO 96/28535 teach conducting the process at the claimed temperatures.

WO 96/28535 does not specifically state that the composition is an emulsion, however, since the cleaning is conducted at the same temperature at which the phase separation occurs it is inherent that the composition is an emulsion.

As to claims 31 and 32:

The Applicants are trying to claims any organic compound having the general formula recited by claim 31. It is noted that numerous organic compounds would have this general formula. The Examiner can list just several examples: methanol, ethanol, isopropanol, terpenes, ethers, esters, etc.

Since WO 96/28535 recites the use of such compounds it meets all the claimed limitations.
